

Seafaring Nations of our world

There are 6 main seafaring nations that sail the seas. Below you can see their flags. Each country is allied with 2 others, enemies with 2 others and neutral with 1. When they come across one another allies will approach to trade, enemies will attack and neutral ships will pass each other by peacefully.

Ausland

Britalia

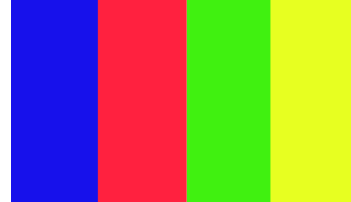

Chance

Denmany

Engales

Finway

1. Ausland will only ally with countries with a greater number of stripes than them
2. Countries with 2 stripes stick together
3. Denmany will only ally with those blue and white striped countries whereas Ausland hates those colours together!
4. Britalia will attack green striped flags
5. Chance cannot STAND red, blue and white together
6. Britalia will only ally with vertical striped flags
7. Engales will go to WAR with vertical stripes except when they have calming colours like green
